

Preview SCOPE Miami Beach 2017: Carole Jury and Laurence de Valmy presented by AZART Gallery

DECEMBER 5-10 2017

MIAMI, FL – Artists Carole Jury and Laurence de Valmy are pleased to announce their participation at SCOPE Miami, represented by AZART Gallery (booth F 29). The 17th edition of the largest fair for emerging contemporary art will open on December 5th on the sands of Ocean Drive and 8th Street. Both artists will be present during the VIP + Press preview on December 5th and will remain in Miami during Miami Art Week. “I’m happy to be present once more at SCOPE Miami with such a nice pool of artists” says Latifa Metheny, Founder of Azart Gallery, who has selected the two artists through the collaboration with French Wink a platform supporting French creation.

Carole Jury, known for her powerful abstract paintings will present recent works called “Metal Song”. With this new series, executed on aluminum sheets, Carole Jury has concentrated her own technics on reflection of light. Laurence de Valmy will present works from the POST series, based on the work and life of major artists. Each artwork is presented as an anachronic Instagram post, combining an original painting and some imagined dialogues between the artist and his connections.

About Carole Jury

Born in Lyon (France), Carole Jury lives in New Jersey. She is an abstract painter who likes playing with textured strokes, nuances of color and brightness and to work with all kind of mediums and tools. The majority of her series is inspired by her photos, which give her a guide for sheen, brightness and reliefs. Her new series executed on aluminum called “Metal Song” will be presented at SCOPE. Carole Jury’s artwork is represented by Azart Gallery – NYC, Gallery of Art & Music – Las Vegas.
